

Graduate Film and Media Certificate Program of Study

Core Classes – 6 hours

Complete both of the following classes:

MUSI 6650 Media Composition and Production I (3)

MUSI 6660 Media Composition and Production II (3)

Production Work – 3 hours

Complete a minimum of three credits from the following list:

MUSI 7610 Media Composition Instruction (3)

MUSI 6680 Game Composition and Production (3)

MUSI 6670 Orchestration and Arranging for Film

MUSI 7800 Introduction to Recording (2)

MUSI 7801 Classical Recording (2)

FILM 6280 Audio Production (3)

FILM 6680 Intro to DV Production (3)

Elective – 3 hours

Choose from the following list. Any courses or hours from the Production list that go beyond the three hour minimum may also be used to fulfill the elective requirement.

FILM 6250 History of Cinema I (3)

FILM 6260 History of Cinema II (3)

FILM 6270 History of Cinema III (3)

FILM 6600 Women and Film (3)

FILM 6620 Genre Cinema (3)

FILM 6640 Latin American Film and Media (3)

FILM 6650 French Film History (3)

FILM 6660 History of Animation (3)

FILM 6670 Film Technology and Style (3)

FILM 7640 Directing for the Cinema (3)

MUSI 6310 Gender and Music Video (3)

MUSI 6190 Interpreting Popular Music (3)

MUSI 6xxx History of Film Music (3)

MUSI 7830 Music and Media Internship (3)

THEA 7880 Sound Effects for the Stage and Screen (3)

* MUSI Special topics courses and seminars that deal with film/media music and related areas may also count towards the elective portion of the certificate, with departmental approval.