

University of Georgia School of Music

Doctor of Education in Music Education

The Doctor of Education in Music Education is a joint program of the College of Education and the School of Music. Each candidate designs an individual program of study in consultation with his or her major professor and advisory committee. Students must complete a minimum of eighty semester hours beyond the baccalaureate degree. Twenty of these credits must be taken in consecutive semesters, one of which may be summer.

Minimum area requirements:

Music Education	12 hours
Music Theory	6 hours
Music History / Literature	6 hours
Professional Education	24 hours
Approved Electives (Including research and dissertation)	32 hours
Total minimum hours:	80